

GROOMING RELEASE FORM

Thank you for choosing Fuzzy Puppy Grooming at Circle Kennel Club. We are excited to be your pet care partner. Here's some things you need to know:

Accidents:

We love your pet, and every effort will be made to insure your pet is groomed as safely as possible but we are working with live, wiggly beings and sharp objects. There is always the possibility an accident could occur. Even though we use extreme caution and care in all situations, possible problems could occur including cuts, nicks, scratches, quicking of the nails etc. Some pets may also have reactions to grooming products or procedures such as shaving, ear plucking etc. In signing this release, you agree to waive claims relating to the care, control, health and safety arising during pick up, transport, drop off, or grooming of your pet.

You agree to authorize Fuzzy Puppy Enterprises, LLC (Fuzzy Puppy Grooming) and/or Circle Kennel Club LLC to administer any emergency medical treatment your pet may need as well as transport to a vet or emergency center in the event of an accident. You agree to pay all expenses related to or resulting from this occurrence.

Health / Medical Problems & Senior Pets:

Grooming can be stressful for your pet! Please inform the groomer if your pet has been diagnosed with a heart problem, arthritis, back or neck problems or any other serious medical condition. Every attempt will be made to minimize the stress which could exacerbate a pre-existing problem. This may mean altering some standard procedures such as not using a heated dryer or expecting the pet to stand still for extended periods. Unfortunately, this could change the final grooming appearance. If the pet becomes excessively stressed or shows signs of medical compromise the groomer will stop, and you will be contacted about the best way to proceed.

Aggressive Pets

Owners MUST inform us, if your dog bites, has bitten, or is aggressive to people, other pets or specific grooming procedures. In some cases a muzzle maybe used. This will not harm your pet, and protects both the pet and the groomer.

We reserve the right to refuse/stop services for such pets at any time before or during the grooming process.

Matted Pets

Pets with matted coats need extra attention during the grooming session. Mats left in pets coats only grow tighter, and can harm the pet's skin. We do not want to cause undue stress to your pet, and will not de-mat your pet for you. Mats are difficult to remove and may require your pet to be shaved. It is not uncommon for underlying skin problems to present once mats are shaved off including parasites (fleas/ticks), infections (yeast/bacteria) or wounds. The groomer will contact you with any such findings. By signing this agreement you consent to having your pet shaved if necessary.

Fleas/Ticks

If fleas or ticks are found on your pet during the grooming process, your pet will be treated with a Flea and Tick Shampoo to kill the parasites and you may be charged an additional fee. Ticks found will be removed, bagged and given to you. If ticks are found we strongly suggest you take your dog to be checked by your vet. Parasites are a health hazard to your pet as well as to humans.

Double coated Breeds

Shaving a double coated breed can result in slow regrowth or occasionally failure of the coat to regrow at all. This has nothing to do with the method of grooming but rather the growth pattern of these types of coats. In some cases, the coat regrows but the color and texture may be different. This is an inherent risk of shaving these types of dogs and should be seriously considered prior to proceeding with the shaving. Shaving double coated dogs may make them less able to regulate their body temperature. If shedding is the concern other methods could be considered.

No-Shows & Cancellations

We request you contact us at least 24 hours prior to your appointment if unable to attend the appointment. We will work with you on isolated emergencies with less than 24 hours notice. Habitual no shows greatly affect our appointment-based business and may result in an additional fee at the time of scheduling. Please be respectful of our time as we are an appointment business, and another client could have taken your appointment if we had known.
